THREE YEAR INDEX 1990-1992

How to Use This Index

The Biblical Archaeology Review and Bible Review Index (1990,1991,1992) is divided into three parts: a TITLE index, an AUTHOR index and a SUBJECT index. Articles, book reviews and significant letters to the editor from both magazines are included in the index.

Each article is listed alphabetically: by subject in the SUBJECT index, by author in the AUTHOR index and by title in the TITLE index. The names of the reviewers, of authors of books reviewed and of authors of letters are listed in the AUTHOR index. Titles of books reviewed are printed in upper case in all three indexes. Brief articles that appeared in boxes within larger articles are listed by title in the SUBJECT index in light type.

Articles about archaeologists are listed in the SUBJECT index under the archaeologist's name as well as under the subject heading "Archaeologists"; articles by archaeologists are found under the archaeologist's name in the AUTHOR index. Articles about scholars in other related fields are listed under the subject heading "Scholars" or under the individual's name.
